WELCOMING

President: Judges and advocates, please all rise. On behalf of the Instituto Oriente, the Academy of English, and the Secretariat, we welcome you to the International Court of Justice in the sixteenth edition of the Model United Nations Instituto Oriente MUNIO 2026. Delegates, you may be seated. I will now introduce the members of the Chair. To my left stands Mr./Mrs. Moderator, _____ (Full Name), and to my right stands Mr./Mrs. Secretary, _____ (Full Name). My name is _____ (Full Name), and I will be your President.

Only in the first session: Being the ____ hours with _____ minutes of ____, I declare our period of sessions officially open.

In other sessions: Being the ____ hours with _____ minutes, I declare the _____ session officially open.

ROLL CALL

President: Now I yield the floor to Mr./Mrs. Secretary.

Secretary: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. President. I will now proceed with the roll call. Whenever you hear your judge's or advocate's name, please raise your placard and say "present" or "present and voting," according to the case.

Judge _____ (Full Name). (And so on until all judges have been called).

Advocate number _____ of the _____ party. (And so on until all advocates have been called).

If a judge/advocate is absent:

Secretary: (Repeats the advocate/judge's full name three times). The Judge _____ (Full Name) / Advocate number ____ of the ____ party is absent.

If a judge/advocate is present:

Judge/Advocate: Present / Present and Voting.

Secretary: The Judge _____ (Full Name) / Advocate number ____ of the ____ party is present and voting.

Once the roll call is finished:

(¼ of the members must be present for the Court to have a quorum.)

Secretary: Thank you, judges and advocates. In this session, we have _____ judges and advocates present and _____ absent. Therefore, we have a quorum. I now yield the floor to Mr./Mrs. Moderator.

If ¼ of the members is not present:

Secretary: Judges and advocates, with ____ judges and advocates present, the Court does not have a quorum. Therefore, we will proceed with a vote on whether to open the session. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions?

Moderator: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Secretary.

OPENING THE SESSION

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion to open/reopen the session. The floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

(Judges and advocates raise their placards)

Moderator: Yes, advocate/judge _____?

STANDARDS OF ADDRESS FOR JUDGES AND ADVOCATES

Judges are required to speak in the first-person singular, as they are representing a character. Advocates must speak in the third-person singular, as they are not representing a character. As shown below:

If it is a judge:

Judge: I would like to make a motion to open/reopen the session.

If it is an advocate:

Advocate: The Advocate number ____ of the ____ party would like to make a motion to open/reopen the session.

Moderator: Thank you, judge/advocate. You are in order. Judges and advocates, there has been a motion to open/reopen the session. Who seconds the motion?

(Judges and advocates raise their placards)

Moderator: Thank you, advocate/judge _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted)

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, judges and advocates, the motion must pass. Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion to open/reopen the session. The floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

If the motion passes:

President: (Strikes the Judicial Gavel)

Moderator: Thank you, judges and advocates. The motion clearly passes; we are now in session.

MEMORIAL OPENING

Moderator: Advocates, the Chair recommends a motion to read the Memorials for 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker. Advocates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

(Judges and advocates raise their placards)

Moderator: Yes, advocate _____?

Advocate: This advocate would like to make a motion to read the Memorials for 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker.

If the advocate does not specify:

Moderator: For how long, advocate? Please reestablish. The Chair recommends 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker.

(Every time the advocate reestablishes, they must repeat the entire structure of the motion.)

If it is in order:

Moderator: Thank you, advocate. You are in order. Judges and advocates, there has been a motion to read the Memorials for 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker. Who seconds the motion?

(Judges and advocates raise placards)

Moderator: Thank you, advocate/judge _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted)

If the motion passes:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes. We will now proceed to the reading of the Memorials.

The first to present their Memorials will be the advocates of the Applicant Party, followed by the Respondent Party.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions?

(At this time, only Points of Personal Privilege, Order, and Parliamentary Inquiry are in order. For any other, the moderator must say: "Advocate/Judge, you are out of order.")

If there are no motions:

Moderator: Since not, advocate _____ is recognized to read their Memorial for 1 minute and 45 seconds. Advocate, you have the floor.

If the advocate starts speaking without recognition

Moderator: Advocate, I have not given you the word. You are out of order. Advocate, you have the word.

If the advocate runs out of time:

Moderator: Sorry, advocate. Your time has expired. Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion to let advocate _____ finish reading their Memorial. Judges and advocates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions? (Judges and advocates raise their placards)

Moderator: Yes, advocate/judge _____?

Judge/Advocate: (Makes motion)

Moderator: Thank you, advocate/judge _____. Judges and advocates, there has been a motion to let advocate _____ finish their Memorial. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted)

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the motion clearly passes. Advocate _____, please continue.

ORDINARY SESSION OF QUESTIONS

Moderator: Thank you, advocate. Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open an ordinary session of questions. Judges and advocates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Judge/advocate: (Raise placard)

Moderator: Yes advocate/judge _____?

Judge/advocate: (Makes motion)

- The judge/advocate must specify the number of questions and follow-ups.
- The maximum number of questions is 5 and the minimum is 2.
- The maximum number of follow-ups is 3 and there is no minimum.
- Follow-ups are established after a question and must be related to it. If the question was accepted, the follow-up must be answered as well.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, there has been a motion in order to open an ordinary session of questions with _____ questions and _____ follow-ups. Who seconds the motion? (Judges and advocates raise placards). Thank you, advocate/judge _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstention? (Votes are counted).

If the majority votes against:

Moderator: Sorry, advocate/judge, the motion did not pass.

If the majority votes in favor:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes. Advocate/judge _____ since you made the motion, you can start with the questions.

- In order to make a question, the judges and advocates must establish a point of information.
- The first delegation to ask is the one who made the motion, the next will be the one who seconded it. If there are more questions left, delegations will have to raise their placard.

If the judge/advocate does not establish a point of Information:

Moderator: Sorry, judge/advocate, you are out of order, you have to establish a point of information in order to ask a question. Please reestablish.

Judge/advocate: Point of information.

Moderator: Establish.

Judge/advocate: (Makes their question).

Brief preamble:

- If the advocate/judge wants to give previous information, context, or an argument, a brief preamble must be opened first. In this case, this is the procedure:

If the judge/advocate gives their explanation without opening brief preamble:

Moderator: (Interrupts). Sorry, judge/advocate, you are out of order. If you want to give an argument you must ask: "Permission to open a brief preamble" first. Please reestablish.

Judge/advocate: Permission to open a brief preamble.

Moderator: Establish

Judge/advocate: (Gives their explanation. At the end, a point of information must be established to ask the continuous question).

Moderator: Advocate _____ (referring to the advocate who read the Memorial), do you accept the question?

If the advocate does not accept the question:

Moderator: (referring to the judge/advocate who asked the question) Sorry judge/advocate, it is not in order.

If the advocate accepts the question:

Moderator: (referring to the advocate who read the position paper) Thank you advocate, you have the word.

Once the number of questions has expired:

Moderator: Sorry, judges and advocates, the number of questions has expired.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF QUESTIONS

- It is not mandatory to open an extraordinary session of questions. The Chair does not recommend it.
- It is up to the judges/advocates to make the motion, nevertheless, the President can decide whether to accept the motion or not, depending on the time.
- There cannot be 2 consecutive extraordinary sessions.
- The maximum and minimum number of questions and follow-ups is the same as the ordinary session.

Judge/advocate: (Makes motion)

Moderator: With how many questions and how many follow-ups, judge/advocate? Please reestablish.

Judge/advocate: With _____ questions and _____ follow-ups.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, there has been a motion in order to open an extraordinary session of questions with _____ questions and _____ follow-ups. Who seconds the motion?

Judge/advocate: (Raise placard).

Moderator: Thank you, advocate/judge _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstention? (Votes are counted).

If the majority votes against:

Moderator: Sorry judge/advocate, the motion did not pass.

If the majority votes in favor:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes. Advocate/judge _____ you have the word, since you opened the motion.

(From this point on, the procedure is the same to the ordinary session of questions)

After the extraordinary session of questions:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on it?

(Only points of personal privilege and parliamentary inquiry are in order at this point).

Moderator: Since not, the Chair recognizes the advocate number _____ (Next advocate to read the memorial) to come to the front and read their memorial.

Once all the advocates have passed

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to close the memorials, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on it? Yes advocate/judge?

Judge/advocate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to close the Memorials reading.

Moderator: Thank you, judge/advocate, you are in order. Judges and advocates there has been a motion in order to close the Memorials reading. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions?

The motion must pass regardless of the votes:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes. The advocates are recognized to leave the court.

The President and the advocates leave the room to begin preparing their evidence and witnesses.

SPEAKER'S LIST

● Since the advocates have left the room with the President, only the judges can participate in this part.
○ In the President's absence, the Secretary must assume their role and responsibilities within the protocol.

Thank you, advocate/judge _____ / Thank you multiple seconds. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted). Advocate/judge _____ (who made the motion) you have the word. (The judge /advocate who seconded the motion has the word afterwards).

When the time expires:

Moderator: The time of the moderated caucus has expired.

UNMODERATED CAUCUS

● The maximum/minimum time of an unmoderated caucus is the same as in the moderated caucus. The rules for the extensions are the same as well, except that there can be as many extensions as the chair considers appropriate.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

● At this point, there can only be points of personal privilege, order and parliamentary inquiry. For any other, the moderator must say: "advocate/judge, you are out of order."

Moderator: Since not, Judges, advocates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper for the time of _____ minutes. The floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Judge/advocate: (makes the motion)

Moderator: Judges and advocates, there has been motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper for the time of _____ minutes. Who seconds the motion? Thank you, advocate/judge _____ / Thank you multiple seconds. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted). The motion clearly passes. We are now in an unmoderated caucus.

President: Judges and advocates since we are in an unmoderated caucus free speech is permitted from this moment onwards. The court is asked to maintain diplomatic behavior and to only speak in English and in first or third person according to the case, you can use eye contact, likewise, the need to establish a point of personal privilege to drink water and take off coats is temporarily suspended. You can now move according to your blocks. Use your time wisely.

● While judges and advocates are in an unmoderated caucus, the Chair has to make sure the judges and advocates are respecting the protocol, which means the Chair needs to be constantly checking what the judges and advocates might be doing. The Secretary has to grade the participation of the judges and advocates at all times during the unmoderated caucus.

- The Working Papers are named according to the party of the advocates ("Working paper of the Applicant/Respondent party").

When the time expires:

Moderator: The time of the moderated caucus has expired. Please return to your seats.

If the judges and advocates have not finished:

- The chair can decide if it is in order to open an extension of the moderated caucus, depending on the time.
- If there is no time left, the Chair proceeds immediately with the next part. If there is time to finish the document(s), the Chair must recommend the corresponding time, and the protocol is the following:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to extend the time of the unmoderated caucus for _____ minutes with the purpose of finishing with the redaction of the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. The floor is now open, are there any points or motions on it? (Judges and advocates raise their placards). Yes, advocate/judge _____?

Judge/advocate: (makes the motion)

The Chair decides if it is in order or not. For instance:

Moderator: Sorry, delegate, you are out of order since there is no time left, the Chair suggests a time of _____ minutes, please re-establish.

- The Unmoderated Caucus does not have to be closed. When the time expires, the Chair immediately proceeds with the next process.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, there has been motion in order to extend the time of the unmoderated caucus for _____ minutes with the purpose of finishing with the redaction of the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. Who seconds the motion? Thank you, advocate/judge _____ / Thank you multiple seconds. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted).

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, advocate/judge, the motion did not pass.

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the motion clearly passes. We are now in an extension of the unmoderated caucus. Use your time wisely.

READING OF THE WORKING PAPERS/RESOLUTION PAPER

Moderator: The Chair recommends a motion in order to read the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. The floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Judge/advocate: (makes the motion)

Moderator: Thank you advocate/judge ____. Judges and advocates, there has been a motion in order to read the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. Who seconds the motion? Thank you, advocate/judge _____ / Thank you multiple seconds. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted).

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, advocate/judge, the motion did not pass.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the motion clearly passes.

WORKING PAPERS

Example: Working Paper of the Applicant Party:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the Chair requests one advocate and one judge of the Applicant Party to read their Possible Resolution Paper. Judges and advocates who want to read the Working Paper of the Applicant Party, please raise your placard. Thank you, advocate/judge _____, thank you, advocate/judge _____. (If only one advocate and one judge raise their placards).

If more than two judges/advocates want to read the Possible Resolution Paper:

- The Chair must hold a voting process as follows:

Moderator: Judges and advocates, please put your placards down. The Chair requests one advocate and one judge of the Applicant Party to read their Possible Resolution Paper. Thank you, advocate/judge _____, thank you, advocate/judge _____. (If only one advocate and one judge raise their placards), (moderator repeats for every judge/advocate that raises their placard).

President: Judges/advocates who vote for the judge/advocate of _____, to read the Working Paper of the Applicant Party, please raise your placards (votes are counted). Thank you.

This process is repeated with every judge/advocate.

President: The judge _____ and the advocate _____ (names of the judge and the advocate who were selected to read), you are recognized to come to the front and read the Working Paper of the Applicant Party.

- The judge and the advocate must wait until the moderator gives them the word.

Moderator: Judge _____ and advocate _____, you have the word. (The judge and the advocate read their working paper).

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

- It is necessary to establish a point of information to ask questions.
- At this moment questions are unlimited, until the Chair considers there is no time left.

If the judges/advocates continue asking questions but the Chair believes it is enough:

President: Judges and advocates, the Chair recommends not to ask more questions since there is no time left.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor? Since not, we will proceed with the Working Paper of the Respondent Party.

The same process is made for the working paper of the Respondent Party.

VOTING PROCESS WORKING PAPER

Moderator: We are now going to start the voting process for the Working Papers. I now yield the word to the Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process.

Secretary: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Moderator, I will now proceed to hold the voting process. Voting process for the Working Paper of the Applicant Party. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote, the options are:

- In favor
- Against
- Abstention

Judge/advocate _____?

Judge/advocate: (Votes).

All the judges and advocates are named, the same process is repeated for the working paper of the Respondent Party.

After the voting processes:

President: Thank you, judges and advocates, please wait while the Chair holds the counting process.

Votes are carefully counted.

President: Judges and advocates, with ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, the Working Paper ___ has passed. Congratulations.

If there is a tie.

- The secretary must hold the voting process again and suggest the judges and advocates to reconsider.

It is recommended to open a Moderated Caucus after a Working Paper is chosen, in order to discuss modifications and that both Paper's proposals are considered for the Resolution Paper, but it depends on the time.

JUDGEMENT PROCESS RESOLUTION PAPER

Moderator: Judges and advocates, the Chair requests two supporter judges to read the Resolution Paper. Judges who want to read the Resolution Paper please raise your placard. Thank you Judge _____, thank you Judge _____.

(Only if two judges raise their placards).

- The judges must wait until the moderator gives them the word.

Moderator: Judges, you have the word.

(Judges read resolution paper).

Moderator: Judges, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

- At this point, only judges can ask questions, and the process is the same as in the reading of the Working Papers.
- It is not necessary to make an ordinary session of questions to start with the questions.
- It is necessary to establish a point of information to ask questions.
- At this moment questions are unlimited, until the Chair considers there is no time left.

RESOLUTION PAPER VOTING PROCESS

During the voting process, the Chair must keep a careful record of each round of voting. It is vital for the flow of the committee that this procedure is done properly. In this process, only the judges may vote, as advocates are considered partial parties and therefore lack the neutrality required to do so.

Moderator: Now I yield the word to the Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process for the Resolution Paper.

Secretary: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Moderator, I will now proceed to hold the voting process for the Resolution Paper. Voting Process for the Resolution Paper of the Applicant/Respondent Party. Judges, please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote:

- In favor
- Against
- In favor with right of explanation
- Against with right of explanation
- Abstention
- Pass

If the judge chooses "pass" he/she must be called again at the end and decide to vote "in favor", "against" or "abstention" or with right of explanation accordingly.

Secretary: Judge _____.

Judge: (Vote).

For the Judges who voted with right of explanation:

President: Judge _____, please raise your placard and give your explanation. Please be brief, you count with 30 seconds.

Judge: (Gives their explanation).

President: Thank you, Judge. (And so on until all the judges who voted with the right of explanation have passed).

Secretary: Having listened to the explanations of the judges, I will now hold the second round of the voting process for the Resolution Paper. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote. Only "In favor" or "Against". Judge _____.

Judge: (Vote).

The final votes are registered.

President: Thank you, judges. Please wait while the Chair holds the counting process.

President: Judges and advocates, with ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, the Applicant/Respondent Party has won the trial.

(President strikes the Judicial Gavel).

President: Congratulations, judges and advocates, the International Court of Justice has reached an internal Resolution.

Moderator: Judges and advocates, please remain in silence while the chosen Resolution Paper is sent to the High Command for its approval.

RESOLUTION PAPER APPROVAL (HIGH COMMAND)

● For this part, the three members of the High Command will be called to the Court and will be the corresponding entity to approve (or not) the Resolution Paper.

Moderator: Judges _____ and _____, you are recognized to come to the front and read the Resolution Paper.

President: Judges and advocates, please all rise, the High Command _____ (Names of the three members with positions) are about to enter the room.

High Command: Thank you, judges and advocates, thank you, Chair, you may be seated/may continue.

● From this moment the process is carried out exactly the same as it was in the previous reading of the Resolution Paper. After the High Command has asked the questions, the Secretary must carry out the voting process:

President: Now I give the word to Mr./Mrs.. Secretary to hold the voting process.

Secretary: I will now proceed to hold the voting process, please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote.

The options are:
-In favor
-Against

The Chair counts the votes carefully

President: Judges and advocates, with ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, Resolution Paper ___ passes.

(President strikes the Judicial Gavel).

President: Congratulations, judges and advocates, the International Court of Justice has reached a Resolution.

OBJECTIONS

- The objections can be used in the cross-examination and the judge's examination.
- They work like points of order; advocates and judges can interrupt whoever is speaking to use them.

Advocate/Judge: Objection, _____.

- The president decides if the objection is in order.

If it is in order:

Moderator: Thank you advocate, you are in order. Advocate ____, (referring to the advocate to whom the objection was directed) please ____ (corrects them).

If it is not in order:

Moderator: Sorry advocate, you are out of order.

The objections are:

- Hearsay: Evidence is given based on what someone said outside of court, not under oath.
- Leading / Speculative: A question that suggests its own answer.
- Compound: A question that asks multiple things at once, creating confusion.
- Argumentative: When the advocate argues with the witness instead of asking a question.
- Asked and Answered: Repeating a question that has already been answered.
- Misleading: A question or answer that could confuse or misrepresent the facts.
- Incompetent: When a witness cannot give reliable testimony due to age or mental capacity.
- Inflammatory: A question meant to provoke emotion in the jury or distract from the facts.

- Privilege: When a witness is legally allowed to withhold testimony on certain topics.
- Immaterial: Questions irrelevant to the case, often intended to distract or manipulate.
- Improper Objection: Raised when the opposing advocate's or judge's objection is unfounded, misapplied, or intended to interrupt unfairly.

WELCOMING A MEMBER OF THE HIGH OR SUB-HIGH COMMAND

President: Judges and advocates, please all rise. A member of HC/SHC, _____ is about to enter/exit the court.

Secretary General: Greta Soleil Lara Hernández
