Now I yield the word to the Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process.

Secretary: I will now proceed to hold the voting process, please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote.

The options are:

- Topic A.
- Topic B.
- Topic A with right of explanation.
- Topic B with right of explanation.

Secretary: Delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation). (The secretary will hold the voting process with the country from Topic A)

Delegate: (Votes.)

President: Delegation of _____, please stand up and give your explanation. Please be brief, you count with 45 seconds.

Delegate: (Gives the explanation.)

President: Thank you, delegate. (And so on until all the delegates who voted with "right of explanation" have passed).

Secretary: Having listened to all the explanations of the delegates, I will now hold the second round of the voting process deciding the topic. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote. Only "Topic A" or "Topic B". Delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation).

President: Delegates with _____ votes in favor, the _____ (full name of the committee) will discuss the Topic A/B: _____ (Whole topic) for MUNIO 2026.

ROLL CALL

President: Now I yield the word to Mr./Mrs Secretary.

Secretary: Thank you Mr./Mrs. President. I will now proceed to take the roll call. Whenever you listen to your delegation's name please raise your placard and say "present" or "present and voting" according to the case.

Delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation). (And so on until all the delegations have passed).

In the case that the delegation is absent:

Secretary: Delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation). (Secretary repeats the full delegation's name 3 times). The delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation) is absent.

In case that the delegation is present:

Delegate: Present/Present and Voting. (It can be said with the official language of the delegation).

Secretary: The delegation of _____ (full name of the delegation) is present/present and voting.

Once the roll call has finished:

(¼ of the delegations must be present for the committee to have a quorum.)

Secretary: Thank you, delegates, in this session, we have _____ delegations present and _____ absent. Therefore, we have a quorum, now I yield the word to Mr./Mrs. Moderator.

(If ¼ of the delegations is not present, the opening of the session will be put to a vote.)

Secretary: Delegations, with ____ delegations present, the committee does not have a quorum. Therefore, we will proceed with a vote on whether to open the session. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions?

Moderator: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Secretary.

OPENING/REOPENING THE SESSION

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open/reopen the session. Delegates the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the motion must pass. (This voting process is repeated until the session is opened).

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Thank you, delegates, the motion clearly passes, we are now in session.

- The session only needs to be opened in the first session of the day, all the other sessions of the day are reopened.

SPEAKER'S LIST

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open the speaker's list for the time of 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker. Delegates the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor? (Delegates raise their placards). Yes delegation of _____?

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open the speaker's list for the time of 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker.

If the delegate is out of order:

Moderator: Delegate you out of order, please reestablish. The Chair recommended a motion to open the speaker's list for 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker.

- Every time the delegate reestablishes, the delegate has to repeat the whole structure of the motion.

If it is in order:

Moderator: Thank you, delegate, you are in order. Delegates there has been a motion in order to open the speaker's list for the time of 1 minute and 45 seconds per speaker. Delegates who seconds the motion? (Delegates raise their placards). Thank you delegation of _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted).

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the motion did not pass. (Repeat the motion).

If the motion passes:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes. We are now in the speaker's list.

Secretary: Delegates that want to be added to the speaker's list please raise your placard.

President: Thank you delegate from _____. (The first 5 placards will be added to the list).

Secretary: Delegations who want to be added to the speaker's list please send a diplomatic note to the Chair through a member of the staff.

- Once the president says "thank you delegate from _____" the delegate must lower their placard.

Moderator: Delegates the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

- At this time, there can only be points of personal privilege, order and parliamentary inquiry. For any other, the moderator must say: "delegate you are out of order".

If there are no motions:

Moderator: Since not. The delegation of _____ is recognized to come to the front and read their position paper for the time of 1 minute and 45 seconds.

Once the delegation is at the front:

Moderator: Delegate, you have the word.

- The first delegation to speak will be the one who made the motion, the second will be the one who seconds the motion. After them, the five delegations mentioned before will participate. Delegates who sent a diplomatic note will participate afterwards.

Moderator: (If the delegate starts speaking and the moderator has not given the word). Delegate I have not given you the word, you are out of order. Delegate, you have the word.

Once the delegate has finished reading its position paper:

If the delegate runs out of time:

Moderator: Sorry, delegate. Your time has expired. Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to let the delegation of _____ finish the reading of their position paper. Delegates the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

(Delegates raise their placards)

Moderator: Sorry, delegate, the motion did not pass.

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Delegates, the motion clearly passes. Delegation of _____ please continue.

Once the delegate has finished, if there is still time:

Moderator: Delegate you have ___ seconds left, what would you like to do with your time?

The delegate has 2 options:

- Give it to the Chair:
  - The protocol proceeds normally.

- Give it to questions:
  - The Moderator does not have to ask the delegation if they accept the questions. The Moderator only says: "Delegate, you have the word". And if the delegate does not answer, the Moderator has to say: "Delegate, since you gave the time to the questions you must answer all of them".

ORDINARY SESSION OF QUESTIONS

Moderator: Thank you delegate. Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open an ordinary session of questions with ___ questions and ___ follow-ups per speaker. Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Delegate: (Raise placard)

Moderator: Sorry, delegate, the motion did not pass. Are there any points or motions on the floor? (Silence) Since not, the delegation of ____ is recognized to take sit.

If the majority votes in favor:

Moderator: The motion clearly passes . Delegation of _____ since you made the motion, you can start with the questions.

- In order to make a question, the delegates must establish a point of information.
- The first delegation to ask is the one who made the motion, the next will be the one who seconded it. If there are more questions left, delegates will have to raise their placard.

If the delegate does not establish a point of Information:

Moderator: Sorry, delegate you are out of order, you have to establish a point of information in order to ask a question. Please reestablish.

Delegate: Point of information.

Moderator: Establish.

Delegate: (Tells its question)

Brief preamble:

- If the delegation wants to give previous information, context, or an argument, the delegate has to ask to open a brief preamble first. In this case, this is the procedure:

If the delegate gives their explanation without opening brief preamble:

Moderator: (Interrupts). Sorry, delegate you are out of order. If you want to give an argument you must ask a "Permission to open a brief preamble" first. Please reestablish.

Delegate: Permission to open a brief preamble.

Moderator: Establish

Delegate: (Preamble).

- At the end the delegate must establish a point of information to ask the continuous question.

Moderator: Delegation of _____ (referring to the delegation who read the position paper), do you accept the question?

If the delegate does not accept the question:

Moderator: (Referring to the delegation who asked the question) Sorry delegate, it is not in order.

If the delegate accepts the question:

Moderator: (Referring to the delegation who read the position paper) Thank you delegate, you have the word.

Once the number of questions has expired:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the number of questions has expired.

Moderator: Delegates the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

- A session of questions only needs to be opened once for all the delegations, it is only opened again if the number of questions or follow-ups change. After the delegation that answered the questions when an ordinary session of questions had been made takes its seat, it is only necessary to raise its placard and establish a point of information for the other delegations that come to the front.

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF QUESTIONS

- It is not mandatory to open an extraordinary session of questions. The Chair does not recommend it.
  - It is up to delegates to make the motion, nevertheless, the president can decide whether to accept the motion or not, depending on the time.
  - There cannot be 2 consecutive extraordinary sessions.
  - The maximum and minimum number of questions and follow-ups is the same as the ordinary session.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open an extraordinary session of questions.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to postpone/close the session.

Moderator: Thank you delegate, you are in order. Delegates, there has been a motion in order to postpone/close the session. Who seconds the motion? Thank you multiple seconds. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted). The motion clearly passes. Delegates, we are now out of session.

MODERATED CAUCUS

- The maximum time for a moderated caucus is 45 minutes, and the minimum is 5 minutes.
- The possible purposes of a moderated caucus are: to debate Position Papers, Possible Solutions, Controversy Points, to make alliances and what the Chair proposes with its criteria.

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open a moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes, with the purpose of _____. Delegates the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

Delegates: (Raise placards).

Moderator: Yes delegation of _____?

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open a moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes, with the purpose of _____.

If the delegate does not specify:

Moderator: For what purpose and for how long? Delegate, please re-establish.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open a moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes, with the purpose of _____.

If it is in order:

Moderator: Delegates there has been a motion in order to open a moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes with the purpose of _____. Who seconds the motion?

Delegates: (Raise placards).

Moderator: Thank you delegation of _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions?

If the motion does not passes:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the motion does not pass. Are there any points of motions on the floor?

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Thank you delegates, the motion clearly passes.

- The first delegation to speak is the one that opens the motion, the next one is the one that seconds it.
- The next delegations to speak must raise placards and the moderator, who needs to be impartial, shall give them the word.

When the time has expired:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the time for the moderated caucus has expired. Delegates the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

To make an extension:

- Extensions of time are requested by motions, suggested by the Chair or asked by delegates, and always have to be at least one minute shorter than the last period. The maximum number of extensions for the same moderated caucus is two.

Moderator: The Chair recommends a motion in order to extend the moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes, with the purpose of continuing discussing ____.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to extend the time of the moderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes with the purpose of continuing discussing ____.

- The Chair decides if it is in order or not according to the time and schedule.

UNMODERATED CAUCUS

- The maximum/minimum time of an unmoderated caucus is the same as in the moderated caucus. The rules for the extensions are the same as well, except that there can be as many extensions as the Chair considers appropriate.

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. Delegates, the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor?

Delegates: (Raise placards).

Moderator: Yes, delegation of _____.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus for the time of ____ minutes, with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper.

If the delegate does not specify:

Moderator: For what purpose and for how long? Please re-establish.

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus for the time of ____ minutes, with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper.

If it is in order:

Moderator: Thank you, delegate, you are in order. Delegates there has been a motion in order to open an unmoderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes, with the purpose of redacting the Working Papers/Resolution Paper. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? (Votes are counted).

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the motion did not pass. (Repeat the motion).

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Thank you delegates, the motion clearly passes. We are now in an unmoderated caucus.

President: Delegates since we are in an unmoderated caucus free speech is permitted from this moment onwards. Delegates are asked to maintain diplomatic behavior and to only speak in English and in third person, you can use eye contact, likewise, the need to establish a point of personal privilege to drink water and take off coats is temporarily suspended. You can now move according to your blocks. Use your time wisely.

- While delegates are in an unmoderated caucus, the Chair has to make sure the delegates are respecting the protocol and alliances within the members of each block. The Secretary has to grade the participation of the delegates at all times during the unmoderated caucus.

- The Chair will name one block "Block A1" and the other "Block A2", with the purpose of distinguishing the Working Papers.
  - For committees with two topics the blocks will be named A1 and A2 or B1 and B2, according to the topic chosen.

When the time is over:

Moderator: Sorry, delegates, the time for the unmoderated caucus has expired. Please return to your seats.

If delegates still do not finish:

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to extend the time of the unmoderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes with the purpose of continuing redacting the Working Paper/Resolution Paper. Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

Delegate: (Raise placards).

Moderator: Yes, delegation of _____?

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to extend the time of the unmoderated caucus for the time of _____ minutes with the purpose of continuing redacting the Working Paper/Resolution Paper.

- The Chair decides if it is in order or not. For instance:

Moderator: Sorry, delegate, you are out of order since there is no time left, the Chair suggests a time of _____ minutes, please re-establish.

- The Unmoderated Caucus does not have to be closed. When the time expires, the Chair immediately proceeds with the next process.

READING OF THE WORKING AND RESOLUTION PAPER

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to read the Working Paper/Resolution Paper. Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor? Yes, delegation of _____?

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to read the Working Paper/Resolution Paper.

Moderator: Thank you, delegate, you are in order. Delegates, there has been a motion in order to read the Working Paper/Resolution Paper of block A1/A2 / B1/B2. Who seconds the motion? Thank you, delegation of _____. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions?

If the motion does not pass:

Moderator: Sorry, delegate, the motion did not pass. Delegates the motion must pass (repeats the motion).

If the motion passes:

Moderator: Thank you, delegate. The motion clearly passes.

- The delegations who made this motion are not necessarily the ones who will read the document.
- The order of the reading of the Working Paper is A1/B1 first and then A2/B2

WORKING PAPER

Example: Working Paper A1

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair requests two supporter delegates by each block to read their Possible Resolution Paper. Delegates who want to read the Working Paper A1 please raise your placard. Thank you, delegation of _____, thank you, delegation of _____. (If only two delegates raise their placards).

If more than two delegates want to read the Working Paper:

- The Chair must hold a voting process as follows:

Moderator: Delegates please put your placards down. The Chair requests 2 delegates to be chosen and read the Working Paper A1. Now I yield the word to Mr./Mrs. President to hold the voting process to decide which delegates will read the Working Paper A1.

President: Delegates that want to read the Working Paper A1 please raise your placard. Thank you delegation of _____ (with all delegates that raise their placards). Thank you delegates.

President: Delegates who vote for the delegation of _____, to read the Working Paper A1, please raise your placards. (votes are counted) Thank you. (and so on with every delegation that raised their placards)

(The votes are counted carefully)
President: Delegation of _____ and delegation of _____ (Delegates who were selected to read), you are recognized to come to the front and read the Working Paper A1.

- Delegates must wait until the moderator gives them the word.

Moderator: Delegates, you have the word.

Delegates: (Reading of the Working Paper).

Moderator: Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

- It is not necessary to make an ordinary session of questions to start with the questions.
- It is necessary to establish a point of information to ask questions.
- At this moment questions are unlimited, until the Chair considers there is no time left.

President: Delegates, the Chair recommends not to ask more questions since there is no time left.

Moderator: Delegates the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor? Since not, we will proceed with the Working Paper A2.

The same process is made for Working Paper A2/B2.

VOTING PROCESS WORKING PAPER

Moderator: We are now going to start the voting process for the Working Papers. I now yield the word to the Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process.

Secretary: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Moderator, I will now proceed to hold the voting process. Voting process for Working Paper A1/B1. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote, the options are:
- In favor
- Against
- Abstention

Delegation of _____?

Delegate: (Votes).

All the delegations are named, the same process is repeated for working paper A2/B2.

After the voting processes:

President: Thank you, delegates, please wait while the Chair holds the counting process.
Votes are carefully counted.

President: Delegates with _____ votes in favor and ____ votes against, the Working Paper ___ has passed. Congratulations.

If there is a tie:

- The Chair has to make sure that the alliances with other countries are respected and congruent.
- The secretary must hold the voting process again and suggest the delegates reconsider.

It is recommended to open a Moderated Caucus after a Working Paper is chosen, in order to discuss modifications and that both Paper's proposals are considered for the Resolution Paper, but it depends on the time.

RESOLUTION PAPER

Moderator: Delegates, the Chair requests two supporter delegates to read the Resolution Paper. Delegates who want to read the Resolution Paper please raise your placard. Thank you delegation of _____, thank you delegation of _____.

If more than two delegates want to read the Resolution Paper:

- The Chair must hold a voting process as follows:

Moderator: Delegates please put your placards down. The Chair requests 2 delegates to be chosen and read the Resolution Paper. Now I yield the word to Mr./Mrs. President to hold the voting process to decide which delegates will read the Resolution Paper.

President: Delegates that want to read the Resolution Paper please raise your placard. Thank you delegation of _____ (with all delegates that raise their placards). Thank you delegates.

President: Delegates who vote for the delegation of _____, to read the Resolution Paper, please raise your placards. (votes are counted) Thank you. (and so on with every delegation that raised their placards)

(The votes are counted carefully)
President: Delegation of _____ and delegation of _____ (Delegates who were selected to read), you are recognized to come to the front and read the Resolution Paper.

- Delegates must wait until the moderator gives them the word.

Moderator: Delegates, you have the word.

Delegates: (Read Resolution Paper).

Moderator: Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor?

- It is not necessary to make an ordinary session of questions to start with the questions.
- It is necessary to establish a point of information to ask questions.
- At this moment questions are unlimited, until the Chair considers there is no time left.

When there is no time left:

President: Delegates, the Chair recommends not to ask more questions since there is no time left.

Moderator: Delegates the floor is now open. Are there any points or motions on the floor? Since not, we will proceed with the voting process for the Resolution Paper.

RESOLUTION PAPER VOTING PROCESS

During the voting process, the Chair must keep a careful record of each round of voting. It is vital for the flow of the committee that this procedure is done properly.

Moderator: Now I yield the word to the Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process.

Secretary: Thank you, Mr./Mrs. Moderator, I will now proceed to hold the voting process for the Resolution Paper. Voting Process for the Resolution Paper A1/A2 / B1/B2. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote, the options are:
- In favor
- Against
- In favor with right of explanation
- Against with right of explanation
- Abstention
- Pass

If the delegate chooses "pass" they must be called again at the end and decide to vote "in favor", "against" or "abstention" or with right of explanation accordingly.

Secretary: Delegation of _____.

Delegate: (Vote).
(And so on until all delegates have voted).

For the delegates who voted with right of explanation:

President: Delegate of _____, please stand up and give your explanation. Please be brief, you count with 30 seconds.

Delegate: (Gives their explanation).

President: Thank you, delegate. (And so on until all the delegates who voted with "right of explanation" have passed).

Secretary: Having listened to the explanations of the delegates, I will now hold the second round of the voting process for the Resolution Paper A1/A2 / B1/B2. Please raise your placard and say how would you like to establish your vote. Only "In favor" or "Against". Delegation of _____.

Delegate: (Vote).

The final votes are registered.

President: Thank you, delegates, please wait while the Chair holds the counting process.

President: Delegates, with ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, The Resolution Paper ___ passes. Congratulations, delegates, the _____ (full name of the committee) has reached an internal Resolution.

Moderator: Delegates please remain in silence while the chosen Resolution Paper is sent to the High Command for its approval.

- At this point, the resolution paper chosen by the committee is immediately sent to High Command to be approved and signed. Once the Resolution Paper is approved by HC, the Chair must ask for the two delegates who read the resolution paper to go (along with the president) to the corresponding committee. (GA/SC/ECOSOC), and read it.

EXCLUSIVE CASES OF SPECIFIC COMMITTEES

When the Resolution Paper is approved by the High Command:

- General Assembly, Security Council, Economic and Social Council, and International Court of Justice.
- For this part, the three members of the High Command will be called to the Session Room and will be the corresponding entity to approve (or not) the Resolution Paper.

President: Delegates, please all rise, the High Command _____ (names of the three members with positions) are about to enter the room.

High Command: Thank you, delegates, thank you, Chair, you may be seated.

From this moment the process is carried out exactly the same as it was in the previous reading of the Resolution Paper. After the High Command (and delegations if time permits it) has asked the questions, the Secretary must carry out the voting process:

President: Now I give the word to Mr./Mrs. Secretary to hold the voting process.

Secretary: I will now proceed to hold the voting process, please say how would you like to establish your vote.
-In favor
-Against

Secretary: Secretary General?

Secretary General: (Vote).

Secretary: Secretary for Committees?

Secretary for Committees: (Vote).

Secretary: Secretary for Logistics?

Secretary for Logistics: (Vote).

At the end of the voting process:

President: Thank you, High Command and Delegates.
The Chair counts the votes carefully

If it is approved:

President: Delegates, with ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, Resolution Paper ___ passes. Congratulations, delegates, the _____ (full name of the committee) has reached a Resolution.

If it is not approved:

President: Thank you delegates. With ___ votes in favor and ___ votes against, the Resolution Paper does not pass. Sorry delegates, the _____ (full name of the committee) does not have a Resolution.

For ECOSOC when UNICEF arrives

Before the foreign committee enters the room:

President: Delegates, the Chair recommends a motion in order to change the official language of the committee to Spanish. Delegates, the floor is now open, are there any points or motions on the floor? Yes, delegation of _____?

Delegate: This delegation would like to make a motion in order to change the official language of the committee to Spanish.

President: Thank you delegate, you are in order. Delegates there has been a motion in order to change the official language of the committee to Spanish. Votes in favor? Against? Abstentions? The motion clearly passes. Now, the official language of the committee is Spanish.

- When the language of the committee has been changed, the other committee is recognized to enter the room. From that point on, every process has to be done in the other language. Therefore, the Chair must learn the protocol in both languages "PROTOCOLO ESPAÑOL".

- Once the other committee has left, a motion has to be made to return to the original committee's language.

PRINCIPAL ORGANS APPROVAL OF FOREIGN COMMITTEES

- General Assembly: HRC, WHO and UNWOMEN.
- Security Council: INTERPOL and OPCW
- ECOSOC: UNEP and UNICEF

When the President and the two delegates chosen to read the Resolution Paper have arrived:

President: Delegates, please welcome the _____ (full name of the committee).

President of the Foreign Committee: Thank you, delegates, thank you Chair, you may be seated.

- The process is done the same as was before with its own Resolution Paper.

Moderator: Now I yield the word to Mr./Mrs. Secretary to explain and hold the voting process for the Resolution Paper of the _____ (full name committee).
